

Acronis Education Services

FOR THE ENTERPRISE

Reduce “read-the-book” delays and improve your business users’ experiences by deepening your engineers expertise in Acronis products.

Acronis can conduct customized training sessions tailored for your organization:

- Multiple offices, onsite or remote workshops, and on-demand webinars
- Role-based trainings and certification (IT, project management office (PMO))
- Train-the-trainer programs for larger organizations with medium or high personnel turnover
- In-depth troubleshooting, implementation, and customization workshops
- Training and reference materials for developers working on integration with third-party systems

Benefits:

- Decrease resolution times by up to 20 percent with better trained personnel.
- Improve business users’ satisfaction and overall team efficiency.

With Acronis Education Services, you can be sure that every member of your IT, PMO, and software development teams are well-prepared to deploy and maintain Acronis products.
